This French-English translation course, taught solely in English, runs both in Semester 1 and Semester 2.

The course requires an effective B2 level in French and English. To ensure that all students following the course have the necessary prerequisites, an entrance test will be held on campus before the first class.

Students wishing to take the course must therefore ensure that they arrive in Aix before classes begin, as no alternative tests can be arranged. They should also send me an email (Ruth.Menzies@univ-amu.fr) before the start of classes, to indicate that they wish to take the test.
